OFFICE OF THE BEE,
Friday evening, Jan. 20, 1865.

The opening of Mobile produces consume extreme[ly] dull, and business in that branch of our market has been on a very limited scale during the past [week]. Sugars, however, still nearly all descriptions of grain and Provisions have advanced. In Tobacco but little is doing. Cotton has been in good request during the week, but with a heavy stock in the market prices have been rather more in favor of buyers. [Th]e sales of Sugar and Molasses have been limited, only about 1 business has been done in Rice since last. Freights have been more active, [and] the engagements of Exchange has met with a fair demand, at best only moderate alterations in rates.

Money [con]tinues very plentiful in the Interior and [New] York, making its rates from Liverpool to the 16th inst. They are [still] very full in the Liverpool market at [the] same rates as last week, previously, [but] much [ea]sier. The [ad]vices of the week [from] the Continent [are] favorable. [The] Bremen, 20th Dec., Hamburg, 21st Dec., Antwerp, 21st Dec., Havre, 20th Dec., Bordeaux, 20th Dec., Marseilles, 19th Dec., and Genoa, 16th Dec., reports comprising those of the Liverpool market, the latter bringing up our Liverpool advices to the 16th inst., and reporting a dull market, [and] a [de]cline in breadstuffs for the week. The [ad]vices further [de]cline of about 6d. At Hamburg [the] [ma]rket [is] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [in] [a] [ve]ry [de]pressed [con]dition, [and] [the] [de]cline [is] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [fully] [1]0 per cent. At Bremen, 20,115 bales of Cotton [were] [re]ceived [in] [the] [week], [and] [the] [sales] [were] [re]ported [at] [a] [de]cline of 1/2d. At Antwerp, 22,586 bales of Cotton were received during the week, and the sales reported at a decline of 1/2d. At Havre, 20,000 bales of Cotton were received during the week, and the sales reported at a decline of 1/2d. At Bordeaux, 2,500 bales of Cotton were received during the week, and the sales reported at a decline of 1/2d. At Marseilles, 1,000 bales of Cotton were received during the week, and the sales reported at a decline of 1/2d. At Genoa, 1,000 bales of Cotton were received during the week, and the sales reported at a decline of 1/2d. [Th]e [re]ceipts of all descriptions of Breadstuffs [at] [the] [Con]tinental [ports] [are] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [light], and [the] [de]mand [fair], and [re]ported [as] [a] dull market. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Mar]seilles [for] the week were 2,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Ge]noa [for] the week were 1,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Ha]vre [for] the week were 10,000 sacks, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Bo]rdeaux [for] the week were 1,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Ma]rseilles [for] the week were 2,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Ge]noa [for] the week were 1,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Ha]vre [for] the week were 10,000 sacks, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull]. [The] [re]ceipts [of] [Wh]eat [at] [Bo]rdeaux [for] the week were 1,000 hectolitres, and [the] [de]mand [was] [re]ported [as] [be]ing [very] [dull].
