can be effectually cured by the use of these Bitters.
In order to effect a cure, the patient must take some of the Bitters according to directions, with a feeling of the utmost confidence in their virtues and adaptation to the constitution, and perseverance in their use for a reasonable length of time. It is impossible for any medicine to do more than nature is capable of performing in the way of assistance, and in all cases a reasonable time must be given for any medicine to show its effects before it can be reasonably expected to cure. Nature must be assisted through the digestive organs, and the Blood purified and its healthy circulation restored, when the cure will be certain and permanent. In many cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, and Fever and Chills, a dose or two only is required, but in obstinate cases of Chronic Debility, Chronic Diseases of the Kidneys, Chronic Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Erysipelas, Scrofula, or King's Evil, Chronic Affections of the Skin, Ulcers, Old Sores, Tumors, Cancer, Diseases arising from the Use of Mercury, Bone Pains, Scald Head, Ringworm, Syphilis or Venereal Affections, and all diseases arising from a Vitiated State of the Blood, or from Imperfect Digestion, a perseverance in the use of the Bitters for a length of time is necessary. Usually from one to three bottles are sufficient to effect a cure in the above diseases, but in
