David H. Burr, Surveyor-General of Utah has arrived here. He states that the celebrated "Mormon Legion" is very poorly equipped, and thinks that a thousand treopi would overnee them.

THEIR IGNORANCE OF GOVERNMENT MOVEMENTS.

The Mormons had not beard, before Mr. Burr left, of the intention of government to send a force there, but they frequently laughed at the idea of the United States authorities enforcing the federal laws against them, oiting their inefficiency in Kansan as conclusive on that point. PROSPECT OF A DIVISION.

M. Berr says that he believes that half of the Mormons would rise against Young if hey were protected by the government roups.

THE CHANCE FOR A FIGHT.

"Dr. Cheever and some of the leading members of his church of the Paritans have not yet settled their difficulties. The bresch, already made, continues to be widered. Already some of the "paying" members have left him and gone to the other Precelytarian churches. A majority of the veniry or deacoms are epocaed to the policy of the Reverend Doctor; and, if his friends attempt the "crushing out" system, the congregation will soob be maimed of its most vigorous and important members."
