COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES, }
Friday Evening, July 12, 1867. }

Our general market has presented a very quiet appearance during the week, the receipts of nearly all descriptions of produce being light, and the demand generally of a very limited character. The stock of Cotton is much reduced, and with favorable advices from Europe, prices still hold an upward tendency, though the business is small. In Sugar and Molasses, the transactions continue limited, and the Tobacco market is heavy and drooping. Flour, Grain and Provisions have been quiet, with but little change in prices. Freights have been inactive, but firm, and Exchanges generally dull.

On Wednesday morning we published the Arabia's advices, embracing dates from Liverpool to the 27th ult. They reported a further improvement in the Cotton market, lower qualities having advanced ¼d, and fair and middling grades 1 16d. ₩ lb., with sales of 60,000 bales during the week. Fair Orleans was quoted at 13¾d., and Middling at 84. ₩ lb. At Havre New Orleans fair ordinary was quoted at 118 francs.

COTTON—Arrived since the 1st instant, 1,301 bales. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool, 9,451; Havre, 6,690; Bremen, 246; Barcelona, 200; Genoa, 1,000; Amsterdam, 1,000, and New York, 267 bales; together, 18,854 bales, making a reduction in stock of 17,496 bales, and leaving on hand, including six shipboards and a lot at the various presses and pickeries not cleared, a stock of 36,971 bales

Our last weekly report closed upon a quiet but firm Cotton market, the rates having shown an advance during the week of ½c for the medium qualities. Saturday was generally observed as a holiday, and the sales of Monday and Monday's market were confined to about 850 bales. On Tuesday 1,000 bales were taken by a few parties at a further advance of ⅛c on the middling descriptions, but on Wednesday, with a reduced supply of desirable lots, and very firm quotations on the part of buyers, the business fell off to 350 bales. Yesterday the demand was rather animated, and resulted in sales of 3,100 bales at outside rates, and to-day 600 bales have changed hands, making a total for the week of 6,850 bales, the market closing at our quotations, which show an advance of ¼c ₩ lb.

LAFFITE SPOILER ARTICULOR.

MR. ALBERT SPOILER, architect, late in the city and country that she has added to her establishment, at the corner of ROYAL and BIENVILLE streets, the greatest variety of new and fashionable goods in every style to order will be found.

Having just returned from Paris and country and been made with the greatest care, she confidently expects from long experience of the past patronage, and hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a liberal share of public favor, which she will be ever grateful for.

Having secured the services of one of the most skilful accountants in Paris, from the house of Gagelin, Opigez & Co., she hopes that her charges will be found to be approximated by the high houses of New Orleans.

LAFFITE SPOILER ARTICULOR.

MR. ALBERT SPOILER, architect, late in the city and country that she has added to her establishment, at the corner of ROYAL and BIENVILLE streets, the greatest variety of new and fashionable goods in every style to order will be found.

Having just returned from Paris and country and been made with the greatest care, she confidently expects from long experience of the past patronage, and hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a liberal share of public favor, which she will be ever grateful for.

Having secured the services of one of the most skilful accountants in Paris, from the house of Gagelin, Opigez & Co., she hopes that her charges will be found to be approximated by the high houses of New Orleans.

MRS. ROBERT,
CHARTRES STREET.

EDUCATION.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL.

MR. A. DUPUY, graduate of Nivelle, in Belgium, respectfully informs that he will re-open the following session, which will begin on Monday, September 2, 1867, in the house where he resided, and undertakes the charge of young children of parents in and out the city, and a practical system of commercial studies is therefore pursued, to which pupils are admitted according to their acquirements.

M. Jegou attends personally to Mathematics, as well as those professions and trades; and classes are formed according to the degree of advancement.

M. Jegou attends personally to Mathematics, as well as those professions and trades; and classes are formed according to the degree of advancement.

The English, French and Spanish languages are taught by well known and competent Professors, but special attention is bestowed on Mathematics and the English language, on account of their importance.

SILK DEPARTMENT.

A knowledge of music being now-a-days almost indispensable to young ladies, a class of solfeggio will open, between the regular hours and those for obligatory exercises, three times a week, in the establishment. That class does not interfere with the others.

The teachers are earnestly requested to use their utmost endeavors to impart to pupils those religious sentiments and principles which are the characteristics of well-bred persons and the best guarantee for the future.

Corporal punishments are expressly prohibited in the establishment.

Reading, Penmanship, Catechism, History, Geography, English, French, Spanish, Mathematics, Commercial and Music, Drawing and Needle work.

A lady residing in the establishment, to look after the girls' classes.

Mr. Jegou owes the success on the patronage of the friends and the friends of education.
