CONDUCTED BY J. O. LORD
THE plan of this Institution comprises a general and extensive education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and can continue until their education is complete, or till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life.
They are distributed into classes according to their talents and advancements.
The premises are perhaps the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, every necessary convenience is combined for administration of learning on a large scale.
The Professors are gentlemen of talents, chosen with great care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral comfort and improvement of the pupils.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MADAME CHARPAUX.
At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.
THIS SEMINARY, in these extreme dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.
Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.
Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the finest squares of ground in the city and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, which will ensure them a constant circulation of air from many windows.
Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.
The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will connect to church and preliminary catechising, all those young ladies who may have their first communion to make.
Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Glaize, who was the best musical school in Paris, and ex artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. Madam Glaize, who has had three years' success, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performance, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the exercises on the regular keys and tones, and this will be attended with no extra charge.
In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their memory, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.
Madam Charpaux, in order to promote the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.
During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Recipes at 4 and close at 6 o'clock. P. M. In winter they will open at 8 A. and close at 3. Re-open at 6 and close at 8 o'clock, P. M.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL.
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MADAME PARENT.
Corner of Rampart and Du Maine streets.
THIS Institution occupies one of the best locations in the city with respect to health and many other important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for classes.
There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabins; also a splendid bathing room with hot baths. A splendid grove commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the Lake
The best attention is offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.
Madame Parent is always present with her pupils at the teaching during the hours of class, and superintends the different divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies reading in the different tongues.
Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Painting, Dancing and Music, are taught.
The Musical department is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.
It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special education that is said to be taught, if being Madame Parent's native language. The best guarantee that she can give to the public is that the French young ladies educated by her can speak it as fluently as their mother tongue.
Mr. Curto, the celebrated musician, will superintend the vocal department.
For terms, apply at the institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.
YOUNG LADIES attending at a distance to the different Districts, will be conveyed gratis in and from the institution. 026

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MADAME CHARPAUX.
At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.
THIS SEMINARY, in these extreme dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.
Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.
Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the finest squares of ground in the city and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, which will ensure them a constant circulation of air from many windows.
Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.
The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will connect to church and preliminary catechising, all those young ladies who may have their first communion to make.
Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Glaize, who was the best musical school in Paris, and ex artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. Madam Glaize, who has had three years' success, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performance, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the exercises on the regular keys and tones, and this will be attended with no extra charge.
In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their memory, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.
Madam Charpaux, in order to promote the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.
During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Recipes at 4 and close at 6 o'clock. P. M. In winter they will open at 8 A. and close at 3. Re-open at 6 and close at 8 o'clock, P. M.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL.
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MADAME PARENT.
Corner of Rampart and Du Maine streets.
THIS Institution occupies one of the best locations in the city with respect to health and many other important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for classes.
There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabins; also a splendid bathing room with hot baths. A splendid grove commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the Lake
The best attention is offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.
Madame Parent is always present with her pupils at the teaching during the hours of class, and superintends the different divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies reading in the different tongues.
Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Painting, Dancing and Music, are taught.
The Musical department is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city
It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special education that is said to be taught, if being Madame Parent's native language. The best guarantee that she can give to the public is that the French young ladies educated by her can speak it as fluently as their mother tongue.
Mr. Curto, the celebrated musician, will superintend the vocal department.
For terms, apply at the institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.
YOUNG LADIES attending at a distance to the different Districts, will be conveyed gratis in and from the institution. 026
