COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
FRIDAY EVENING, January 26, 1866.

A fair amount of business has been done in our general market during the past week, and prices have been well maintained for most kinds of goods.
Our grand staple, Cotton, has however been more active, the large stock causing a degree of excitement. Sugar and Molasses were quiet and steady, with advancing prices. In Tobacco the operations continue limited. Flour has improved both in demand and rates, while Corn has declined. Provisions and Groceries are without material change. Freights and Exchange are unchanged.
On Thursday morning we published the City of Washington's advices, embracing Liverpool dates to the 5th instant. They reported sales of only 14,000 bales Cotton for five days, including 1400 for speculation and export. Prices were generally reported without change, though some authorities quoted a slight decline on some qualities.
COTTON—Arrived since the 18th instant, 24,874 bales. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 20,203 bales, Havre 7,063, Barcelona 1536, Genoa 1139, Trieste 2551, Bremen 10,283, for coast 786, Boston 2321, New York 822, Providence 262, Philadelphia 290, Baltimore 30, and Browns Boutique 100 bales—together, 41,963 bales, making as addition to stock of 33,406 bales, and leaving on hand, including 4500 on shipboard not cleared (the day), a stock of 467,000 bales.

The stock on hand is heavy, but comprises only a limited proportion of desirable bales, which have been in demand every day, and during the week and the business generally has been of quite a moderate character, the better grades have been well maintained, and the better grades have shown an improvement in most of the transactions. The lower qualities, and many descriptions, have become extremely dull, the latter being almost unsaleable. The sales of the week have amounted to some 35,000 bales, of which 13,300 were taken on Saturday, 6000 on Monday, 6000 on Tuesday, 4000 on Wednesday, 3500 yesterday, and 3000 to-day, the market closing at the range of our quotations, as follow:
