FORNEY AND HIS PARTY.

The Washington Union and other administration journals still wage war against Douglas, and have been greatly exasperated at the disclosures made by Judge W. Russell, in his Tarrytown speech. They deny the truth of these statements and traduce and revile their author. It may be a question of veracity between Brookfield Buchanan and Mr. Forney as to the latter's denial of the revelations made by the former of the false letter, as supplied by Forney, or plainly exaggerated truth by invention, or plainly exaggerated truth by invention, or plainly exaggerated truth by invention
