

THE DAILY BEE. MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 11, 1888.

It is nearly a subject of surprise that any respectable journal—worthy publication—has abandoned the standard and raised themselves above the standard of independence. Police has descended from its high mission as a law of the people, and has become a party of persons, and as such has been the portion of the monthly begins to lose its character as a newspaper.

Five Editors.—We are inclined to think that the five editors of the Bee, James M. Edwards, New York, for the first time, have been named as candidates for the position of Mayor of New Orleans, in the next election.

Florida.—An extra from the Pensacola Gazette states that the American ticket for Representative succeeded in this election in the 1st district of Florida.

Localities.—Mr. Crawford (the) was very much disappointed in the result of the election in the 1st district of Florida.

Shannon.—A short time since, in South Carolina, a man named Shannon, who had been a member of the House of Representatives, was elected to the Senate.

Democratic.—The Democratic ticket for Representative succeeded in this election in the 1st district of Florida.
