

THE DAILY BEE. MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 1886.

By Telegraph.
ARRIVAL OF THE TEXAS.
OUR DAYS LATER FROM HAVANA.
Havana, October 25.—The steamer Texas arrived here this morning from Havana, bringing news of the progress of the rebellion in Cuba. The steamer was laden with passengers and cargo, and was met by a large number of people at the wharf.

VAN DYKE'S DEATH.
The New York Daily News publishes a curious and interesting communication touching the death of Van Dyke. It is stated that the late gentleman was found dead in his room at the Hotel Grand Central, New York, on the morning of the 23rd inst. The cause of death is stated to be apoplexy.

WILSON'S BUILDING.
The main floor of the Wilson Building has been finished. The building is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted for business purposes. It is situated on the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets, and is one of the finest buildings in the city.

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS.
The citizens of New Orleans are hereby appealed to in support of the cause of the oppressed. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the weak and the oppressed. We call upon the citizens of New Orleans to unite in support of the cause of the oppressed.

NOTICE.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has accepted of the office of Receiver of the Public Lands for the District of Louisiana. He is at the office of the Receiver of the Public Lands, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DAILY BEE.
Published daily, except on Sundays and holidays, at the office of the publisher, No. 107, St. Charles street, New Orleans, Louisiana.
Subscription price, $1.00 per year in advance.
Advertisements, by the square, in advance.

OUR DAYS LATER FROM HAVANA.
Havana, October 25.—The steamer Texas arrived here this morning from Havana, bringing news of the progress of the rebellion in Cuba. The steamer was laden with passengers and cargo, and was met by a large number of people at the wharf. The news from Havana is very encouraging. The rebel forces are making rapid progress, and the Spanish government is in a state of confusion.

VAN DYKE'S DEATH.
The New York Daily News publishes a curious and interesting communication touching the death of Van Dyke. It is stated that the late gentleman was found dead in his room at the Hotel Grand Central, New York, on the morning of the 23rd inst. The cause of death is stated to be apoplexy. The late gentleman was a prominent citizen of New York, and his death is a great loss to the community.

WILSON'S BUILDING.
The main floor of the Wilson Building has been finished. The building is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted for business purposes. It is situated on the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets, and is one of the finest buildings in the city. The building is owned by Mr. Wilson, and is a great credit to the city.

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS.
The citizens of New Orleans are hereby appealed to in support of the cause of the oppressed. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the weak and the oppressed. We call upon the citizens of New Orleans to unite in support of the cause of the oppressed.

NOTICE.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has accepted of the office of Receiver of the Public Lands for the District of Louisiana. He is at the office of the Receiver of the Public Lands, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DAILY BEE.
Published daily, except on Sundays and holidays, at the office of the publisher, No. 107, St. Charles street, New Orleans, Louisiana.
Subscription price, $1.00 per year in advance.
Advertisements, by the square, in advance.

OUR DAYS LATER FROM HAVANA.
Havana, October 25.—The steamer Texas arrived here this morning from Havana, bringing news of the progress of the rebellion in Cuba. The steamer was laden with passengers and cargo, and was met by a large number of people at the wharf. The news from Havana is very encouraging. The rebel forces are making rapid progress, and the Spanish government is in a state of confusion.

VAN DYKE'S DEATH.
The New York Daily News publishes a curious and interesting communication touching the death of Van Dyke. It is stated that the late gentleman was found dead in his room at the Hotel Grand Central, New York, on the morning of the 23rd inst. The cause of death is stated to be apoplexy. The late gentleman was a prominent citizen of New York, and his death is a great loss to the community.

WILSON'S BUILDING.
The main floor of the Wilson Building has been finished. The building is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted for business purposes. It is situated on the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets, and is one of the finest buildings in the city. The building is owned by Mr. Wilson, and is a great credit to the city.

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS.
The citizens of New Orleans are hereby appealed to in support of the cause of the oppressed. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the weak and the oppressed. We call upon the citizens of New Orleans to unite in support of the cause of the oppressed.

NOTICE.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has accepted of the office of Receiver of the Public Lands for the District of Louisiana. He is at the office of the Receiver of the Public Lands, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DAILY BEE.
Published daily, except on Sundays and holidays, at the office of the publisher, No. 107, St. Charles street, New Orleans, Louisiana.
Subscription price, $1.00 per year in advance.
Advertisements, by the square, in advance.

OUR DAYS LATER FROM HAVANA.
Havana, October 25.—The steamer Texas arrived here this morning from Havana, bringing news of the progress of the rebellion in Cuba. The steamer was laden with passengers and cargo, and was met by a large number of people at the wharf. The news from Havana is very encouraging. The rebel forces are making rapid progress, and the Spanish government is in a state of confusion.

VAN DYKE'S DEATH.
The New York Daily News publishes a curious and interesting communication touching the death of Van Dyke. It is stated that the late gentleman was found dead in his room at the Hotel Grand Central, New York, on the morning of the 23rd inst. The cause of death is stated to be apoplexy. The late gentleman was a prominent citizen of New York, and his death is a great loss to the community.

WILSON'S BUILDING.
The main floor of the Wilson Building has been finished. The building is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted for business purposes. It is situated on the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets, and is one of the finest buildings in the city. The building is owned by Mr. Wilson, and is a great credit to the city.

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS.
The citizens of New Orleans are hereby appealed to in support of the cause of the oppressed. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the weak and the oppressed. We call upon the citizens of New Orleans to unite in support of the cause of the oppressed.

NOTICE.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has accepted of the office of Receiver of the Public Lands for the District of Louisiana. He is at the office of the Receiver of the Public Lands, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE DAILY BEE.
Published daily, except on Sundays and holidays, at the office of the publisher, No. 107, St. Charles street, New Orleans, Louisiana.
Subscription price, $1.00 per year in advance.
Advertisements, by the square, in advance.

OUR DAYS LATER FROM HAVANA.
Havana, October 25.—The steamer Texas arrived here this morning from Havana, bringing news of the progress of the rebellion in Cuba. The steamer was laden with passengers and cargo, and was met by a large number of people at the wharf. The news from Havana is very encouraging. The rebel forces are making rapid progress, and the Spanish government is in a state of confusion.

VAN DYKE'S DEATH.
The New York Daily News publishes a curious and interesting communication touching the death of Van Dyke. It is stated that the late gentleman was found dead in his room at the Hotel Grand Central, New York, on the morning of the 23rd inst. The cause of death is stated to be apoplexy. The late gentleman was a prominent citizen of New York, and his death is a great loss to the community.

WILSON'S BUILDING.
The main floor of the Wilson Building has been finished. The building is a fine specimen of modern architecture, and is well adapted for business purposes. It is situated on the corner of Canal and St. Charles streets, and is one of the finest buildings in the city. The building is owned by Mr. Wilson, and is a great credit to the city.

APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS.
The citizens of New Orleans are hereby appealed to in support of the cause of the oppressed. It is the duty of every citizen to stand up for the rights of the weak and the oppressed. We call upon the citizens of New Orleans to unite in support of the cause of the oppressed.

NOTICE.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has accepted of the office of Receiver of the Public Lands for the District of Louisiana. He is at the office of the Receiver of the Public Lands, at New Orleans, Louisiana.