No. 161 CANAL STREET, New Orleans.

Opening of the Washington Hotel.

THE undersigned respectfully inform their friends and the public that the Washington Hotel, at Lake Pontchartrain, will be opened on SUNDAY next, May 2d. This splendid establishment has been rebuilt on a new plan, and is as well distributed and comfortable as could be desired. Visitors will find large and ventilated parlors, and a spacious per fectly furnished and fitted up for families. The bar-room which, previous to the fire, occupied a portion of the Hotel itself, and was therefore objectionable, has been removed to a separate building, erected expressly for that purpose. The Garden is well stocked in every respect, and will be found by visitors as shady and pleasant as heretofore.

Embalming the Dead
P. CASANAVE,
UNDERTAKER
No. 97 Marais street, between Customhouse and Bienville, (Second District)

HAVING purchased from Dr. Holme, of New York, the right of EMBALMING THE DEAD by his celebrated process, not only in the city of New Orleans and its vicinity, but also in the other side of the lake, informs the public that orders will be attended to at his house, 97 Marais, or by night. He avails himself of this opportunity to assure the public that the bodies are not opened, nor in any manner whatever mutilated, but retain their natural state.

He has had a large tomb erected in Cemetery No. Two, Bienville street, similar to those in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, and which is destined to receive temporarily the remains previous to their being taken for interment in other countries. The bodies may be embalmed within eight or ten days after death. Relatives and friends of the deceased will be admitted to the inspection of the bodies at all times. may24 1y
