CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

FRAUDULENT IMITATIONS

OF

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

AS certain evil disposed persons, lured on by the success it has met with, persist in counterfeiting and imitating the wrapper, bottle and label of the genuine STOMACH BITTERS, thereby endangering the health and lives of the community, and defrauding the proprietors of the just profits of their industry, skill and capital, they deem it necessary to caution the public against purchasing any article of bitters which is not enveloped in a wrapper bearing the signature of the proprietors, as no other article of bitters is a genuine preparation of the STOMACH BITTERS.

HOSTETTER & SMITH.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Under the above caption we find the notice of the label, in a circular issued by a druggist in this city, who is connected with a firm engaged in the manufacture of a bitters, which is counterfeiting the wrapper, bottle and label of the genuine article of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, in every block letter, and the whole is surrounded with a counterfeit steel engraving.

It is hoped that this exposition will secure the public against the fraud upon them, and the proprietors against the loss of custom which they have sustained, and are daily sustaining, by the counterfeiting of their bitters. It is to be regretted that the law does not afford the proprietors of genuine articles more protection in the matter of counterfeiting than it does, as the only remedy they have is to sue for damages, which is generally a long and expensive process, and in the end amounts to but little.

The public should be particularly on their guard against the counterfeit article, as the counterfeiters are not content with imitating the genuine article in every particular, but they also counterfeit the signature of the proprietors, and the name of the druggist who sells the genuine article.
