

THE DAILY BEE.
Published by
G. F. WHISKEY & CO.
100 Royal Street, New Orleans,
Daily Paper, one year, $1.
Subscription, $1.
Price, 5 cents.
We publish, weekly, a Review of Books, and a column of news from the South, which will be considered as a review of the news of the South, and will be given in the above.

Skye ORLEANS.
THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1861.

DEPARTMENT BY THE WEEK.
The carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions to our paper, at the rate of 25 cents a week, payable in all sums to the carrier themselves.

Bills at Auction To-Day.

B. F. Rager & Co., at 10 o'clock, No. 45 and 47 Royal Street, will sell dry goods, and whale oil.

J. E. French, at 10 o'clock, No. 631 Royal Street, books and furniture.

B. M. Harriet, at 10 o'clock, of the St. Louis Yacht Club, will sell furniture.

The Auctioneer—The sale of the Sheriff of the parish of St. Bernard's store, at the corner of Royal and St. Charles Streets, will be held on Friday, March 31, at 10 o'clock A. M., on the premises. Catalogue can be had at the Sheriff's office.

Our Constitution Judged by a Black Republican.

The Constitution of the Confederate States must certainly be a production of good-natured wisdom, since it has the rare good fortune to exist upon the soil of the South. That the Southern Confederacy may be regarded as the best Constitution ever devised by man is natural, but that the New York Times should be so impudent as to call it "the greatest political achievement of modern times" is beyond comprehension. The Constitution has received sympathetic recognition from many of the ablest statesmen who have ever sat in Congress, and the whole world over.

The Turkish Mission.

New York, March 29.—The Turkish Watson diplomatic corps has been received at the court of the Sultan. The Ambassador of the Empire, Mr. T. A. Watson, presented his credentials to the Sultan, and was received by him.

The Envoy of Prussia.

New York, March 29.—The Envoy of Prussia, Count von Gadow, has been received at the court of the Emperor.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 29.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The French and Spanish Governments will recognize the Southern Confederacy. No recognition of the United States, in fact, will be given by either.

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."

The Joint Committee of Congress.

Washington, March 30.—Orders have been

forwarded for the evacuation of Fort Sumter.

Charleston Items.

New York, March 30.—A telegram to the Herald from Charleston says: "Major Anderson's command will leave by the steamer Columbia on Saturday morning."