From Richmond.

Richmond, March 21.—The Senate has passed a resolution to admit the men of Hayward's crew into the service of the Confederate States.

The Senate has passed a bill to pay out of the appropriated fund, money due the old and relief of the Confederate soldiers now in the hands of the enemy.

Washington Theatre.—The Greenville Enquirer relates a funny incident of the war which happened lately in one of the hostile counties of Tennessee, as follows:

A company of brave fellows of forty Union men were trying to make their escape from Kentucky to join the Northern army; they came to a ferry where there were a number collected to cross. Not wishing to get their character out, and knowing it not to their shirts, and while in this condition they were surprised by a company of Jeff's men. Of course, one word explained all, and they were marched off to the nearest camp of instruction. Here they were compelled to take the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States, which they did, and were then marched off to the front. Remember that they were all compelled to take the oath. The next day after they had taken the oath, they were ordered to march, and were
