The Richmond F-daminer eage:

We hear from our woulded occasional very graphic incidents of Saturday a great battle. At several points on our line the enemy made reverted changes, which in every instance were expired. At one point, just ontaide the town of Fredericksburg, our troops were shelred behind a stone wall. It is said that these different attempts were made by the enemy to take this position, without success. The third true, as their column of a seant was broken, our troops made from their cover and pursued the enemy, our mon loading and firing as they can after the doses of finances, until they had go to the cover of their batteries.

Federals are gold to have exhibited more hand their ordinary covarides on the field, and to have longth with just into display of seal or energy. Several invident prisoners were captured in one lot, who excused their currender the circumstated that all their efficers had an away.

Enquirer we extract the following: NARROW ESCAPE OF GEN. JACKSON. General "Stonewall" Jackson, who, many almost believe, leads a charmed life, had a very acrow season. He was watching the hatle, and standing at the time near an oak tree, when the late that two little standing at the time near an oak tree, when the late two little standing at the case of the late that two inches above its head.
