THE ARRESTS AT TRENTON.—The Washington Ster of the 17th ultimo contains the following paragraph, regarding the arrest of the two officers of Gen. McClellan's staff:

We were right in our supposition given on Saurday as to the occasion of the arrest of Lieutesant-Colonels Colours and Denne, virithan the surborities here do not recognize them to the seame upon General McClellan's staff, and took this measure to enforce their return to the army. Col. Colours on Sanday received from the Assertance of the two distances of the two distances of the control of the personal test asking him by Gen. McClellan. He answered by order of Gen. McClellan: He answered by order of Gen. McClellan. He answered by order of Gen. McClellan. It is understood that whether technically of General McClellan's personal time the companion of his personal staff, having been the campaigns which General McClellan has econdected.
