Henry William Westhols, Administrator of the Succession of Mrs. Elizabeth Roland, vs. Charles Beddiges.

SIXTH DISTRICT COURT OF NEW ORLEANS. No. 11,126.—By virtue of a writ of seizure and sale to me directed by the Honorable the Sixth District Court of New Orleans, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the Merchants' and Auctioneers' Exchange, Royal street, between Canal and Common streets, in the Second District of this city, on TUESDAY, the 22d day of March, 1864, at 12 o'clock, M.—

A CERTAIN LOT OF GROUND situate in the First District of this city, in the square bounded by Common, Bank, Bilbo and Gravier streets, designated by the No. One in square No. 10, on a plan drawn Alfred Mercier, surveyor, on the 16th of July, 1859, deposited in the office of J. Cavallier, into a notary public in this city, on the 19th day of March, 1859, and has a frontage thereon of seven feet five inches two lines from Common street, twenty-seven feet from on Bank street, ninety-three feet three inches in depth and front of Miro street, and ninety-eight feet nine inches and six lines in the line which divides it from lot No. 2. Being the same property defendant acquired by purchase from the estate of E. Gerdine, by act passed before P. C. Carvallier, late a notary public, dated May 26th, 1855.

Seized in the above suit.

Terms cash on the spot.

ALFRED SHAW, Sheriff of the LEGAL NOTICES.

THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.—THIRD DISTRICT COURT OF NEW ORLEANS.—I hereby certify that on the 16th day of February, 1864 judgment was entered in this Court in this suit, in the words and figures following, to-wit:

No. 17,713.—Lemle, wife of E. Levy, vs. Her Husband.—This cause submitted to the Court by consent of parties, and the Court being satisfied, from the depositions of and proof contained in the record, that the plaintiff has fully made out the allegations of her petition: It is ordered adjudged and decreed that there be judgment in favor of plaintiff decreeing a separation of property between her and her said husband; that the community so conjoints and gains heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, and that plaintiff be authorized to exercise all the rights and actions which the laws of Louisiana allow to married women separated of property from their husbands.

Rendered February 16th, 1864. Signed February 20th, 1864.

(Signed) W. W. HANDLIN, Judge

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, at the city of New Orleans, on the 26th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

C. F. BUSSEY, Clerk.

ARE YOU IN AGONY?

A well spring of hope for all can be found in

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Be of good cheer! The Sinking may be saved! By the use of

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

The history of these great Remedies is the most wonderful medical revelation that the world has ever known. It establishes the all-important fact that WHEREVER, and in WHATEVER SHAPE internal disease exists, the Ointment, by its searching and healing properties of the Pills are fully equal to its subjection and cure, and that, with the Ointment, they are

The Great Ambassadors of Health to all Mankind.

This is not a history written by one man or even by dozens from the experience of one nation. It consists of a compilation of testimonials from the sick of every country—an unimpeachable record, the like of which has never been adduced in favor of any discovery or invention since time began.

These Mighty Healers, World-known and World-tried, give a Boon to the Sick.

The train of a sterling constitutional to meet the life and prosperities of the suffering portion of humanity, and one untimely free from unbound and other deleterious particles, was scarcely felt till this all-powerful medicine was ushered into the world. HOLLOWAY'S INVALUABLE PILLS have become the household REMEDY of all nations. Their search is to restore to health as well as to cure; they attack the cause or root of the complaint, and thus, by removing the latent cause of disease, reinvigorate and restore the drooping energies of the system, enabling nature in her task of VITAL and FUNCTIONARY rejuvenation.

Disorders of the Stomach

Are the sources of the deadliest maladies. Their effect is to vitiate all the fluids of the body, and to send a poisonous stream through all the channels of circulation. How, what is the operation of the Pills? They cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, bring the relaxed or irritated stomach into a natural condition, and, coming through the secretive organs GIVE THE BLOOD APERIENT, change the state of the system from sickness to health by exercising a simultaneous and wholesome effect upon all its parts and functions.

Women in all her Difficulties

Is invited to test the regulating and restorative power of this harmless but effective preparation. At the two periods of life when the female system undergoes the most important and critical changes, the Pills will prove a positive safeguard against evil consequences. They are also confidently recommended as a specific in every disorder to which females are exclusively subject.

Be it Understood,

That the above statements are of all times be verified by written testimony (extending through a quarter of a century), and by the writers of unimpeachable character.

Bilious Maladies, &c., &c.

In whatever form diseases attack the liver, is to be united and exterminated by this searching, painless and benefical alterative. Bilious remittents, bilious purging, and all the ordinary disorders of the organ, indicated by pain in the right side and between the shoulders, discoloration of the whites of the eyes, weakness and debility, are removed and removed, by the remedy, with a certainty which astonishes the sufferers and their friends. Let the sick, whom the frankly have abandoned, not, meant when confidence to this powerful anti-bilious agent, and a restoration to health and activity will be the unvarying result.

Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Weakness, &c.

The terrible bodily and mental pangs which chronic torpine dyspepsia are at once mitigated by the Pills. Diarrhœa, constipation, headache, physical prostration, nervous tremors, hot flushes, spasms, affections of the kidneys, hæmorrhoids or piles, and, in fact, all internal complaints, from whatever cause arising, give way before the salutary influences of this extraordinary remedy. As a specific for dyspepsia and the disorders connected with it, or spouring out of it, the Pills are always to be relied on when every other medicine and mode of treatment has utterly failed.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known the world for the following diseases:

Bowel Complaints,	Rheumatism,
Coughs,	Retention,
Colds,	Scrofula,
Constipation,	Inflammation,
Consumption,	Secret Maladies,
