Constitutional Convention.

THURSDAY, May 19, 1864.

On motion of Mr. Gorjiaski the vote of yesterday, on the resolution appropriating twenty thousand dollars to the charitable institutions was reconsidered and the resolution was referred to a special committee of five.

Mr. Campbell presented a resolution appropriating ——— dollars to destitute Union refugees, which was referred to the special Committee on Charitable Institutions.

Mr. Hill's resolution, imposing a forfeiture of the per diem of absent or tardy members, was called up and adopted by a vote of 41 yeas to 38 nays.

Mr. Bentz also called up his resolution that on motion to adjourn for a longer term than 24 hours shall be put, unless it be seconded by a majority of the members present, and was adopted.

A resolution, presented by Mr. Wilson, to adjourn on the 1st June, was called up and tabled.

The report of the Committee on Legislative Department was then taken up, and on Mr. Farrell's motion to strike out that portion of the Sixth Section, which allows the Legislature to extend the right of suffrage to "such other persons, citizens of the United States, as by military service, by taxation, or by intellectual fitness may be entitled thereto," the same was ordered by a vote of 52 yeas to 23 nays.

The report was then adopted without further amendment and the Convention adjourned.
