Successful Expedition by Gen. Lee.

Baton Rouge, November 21, 9 P. M.
To Lieut. Col. C. P. Dyer, A. A. G.:

Six Miles East of Port Hudson.—To Brig. Gen. Beaton, Baton Rouge: I set an train here and shall arrive to night. Have captured 160 prisoners, including 25 company officers. Had a steady fight at Liberty, and whipped them badly, capturing one piece of artillery at Liberty and two at Brookhaven, one of these a siege gun, formerly captured at Port Hudson. I have all Gen. Rodney's staff, have from six to eight hundred head of horses and mules rode by negroes, and destroyed immense stores on the railroad.

A. J. Lee, Brigadier General.

Brig. Gen. Lee, with his whole command, prisoners and captured, as previously reported, has just arrived in Baton Rouge.

W. P. Benton, Brig Gen.

GATHER FROM THE SHENANDOAH—ANOTHER LEVY AND PURCHASES BY GEN. POWELL.

New York, November 16.—The Herald's dispatches from the Shenandoah Valley give further particulars of the capture of the train of 70 wagons and beyond Rapid Ann, by Powell's division of Cavalry, on Saturday last, and on count of another penalty thereby over the camp of Custer and Merritt.

On the same day Gen. Powell sent back from Liberty Valley as the fruits of his canon of Rapidan flying troops, six pieces of artillery and 14 caissons, 14 wagons, and a large quantity of ammunition.

Custer's and Merritt's fighting consisted of several before skirmishing, the rebels being finally driven back on great confusion.

Gen. Custer pursued the infantry as far as Stanton, but immediately withdrew on the left of his cavalry, and returned to Fisher's Hill.

The Union loss in the engagement was very small, both in killed and wounded. Kelly's Cavalry force is estimated to be a considerable one, and Sheridan's is also in excellent condition and in the best spirits, and prepared for more rebel whenever they choose to come on.

GEN. GRANT'S WINTERING CAMPAIGN.

New York, November 16.—The Express publishes to-day an extract from a letter from Atlanta ten days ago, which says a wonderful order is about to prepare for a ten days campaign. What is to be the programme no one knows, but it is generally conceived that a large force is soon to be sent for provisions, on Augusta and Milledgeville.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS OFFICE IN FLORIDA TO A FREE VOTE.

New York, November 16.—The Commercial's Washington special says Gen. Butler had an interview with the President to-day, and it is understood that he would leave for his station in command an important position, and will start before to the army of the James. His speech in New York is warmly commended.

Gen. Sheridan has been ordered to New York on disposition in the prize courts.

THE CONSCRIPTION.

Halifax, November 16.—Reliable dates to 8 o'clock to-night say that the private Christmas sale of Fort Fisher was to take place on the morning of the 8th, for re-sale. Nine had captured a back and two schooners, and a unknown number beside those already reported.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, November 15.—The rebels have fairly work playing a strange game in front of a part of our lines. Last night Appomattox Light Infantry fired a small creek in front of our picket posts, which caused some excitement, but was not considered of forces last night. In consequence of this, Lieut. Col. Rives, commanding the regiment, ordered a strong picket to cross the creek this morning, and ascertain the cause of the firing. This picket was successful, and after several attempts, in which they were repulsed, succeeded in driving the rebels back.

New York, November 16.—The Herald's Gray Point correspondent, dated 14th, says Gen. Kenly, was wounded in the arm by sharpshooters this morning.

FROM NEW YORK.

A good number of volunteer and substitute bounties daily, and the furnishing progress soon to be at the highest point ever reached.

The detective police have arrested several fugitives concerned in the swindling of the Bank of Commerce out of $25,000. Additional Deposit is in the city. All except that cause from which General Butler have gained for Fort Monroe large numbers of furloughed soldiers are passing through the city on their return.

ESCAPE OF THE REBEL PRISONERS.

New York, November 16.—It appears that the Tallahassee managed to escape the steam the other day of the Gulf Union steamers engaged in the pursuit of her on the 7th instant. The Montgomery and Lilian took the lead. The former following her up from 10 o'clock to the morning until dark. The pursuit was unflagging and determined, no near was they got to have that but a short time would have elapsed before she would have been their prey, when night set in and she escaped in the darkness.

THE QUESTION OF AMNESTY TO THE REBELS.

New York, November 16.—The city is full of rebels to-day concerning the probable offer of amnesty to the rebels.

New York, November 16.—The Post's Washington special sheet to-day says rumors are abundant that our Government will offer generous terms to the rebels before December.

THE FEDERAL FIN GOAD RETAKEN SOLD BY MEN COMMISSION.

Cairo, November 16.—The Register, a dispatch paper, was recently sold to the rebels by the Government at some point below.

Information concerning the affair is rather indefinite, but it is said the commander had so disposed of the boat as to prevent resistance to the delivery. A small force was prepared for the night she was to be delivered, and a subordinate officer on board had his suspicions aroused, and fired a revolver at the rebels and frightened them away.

The affair was investigated, and it was discovered that the commander of the gunboat had already received two hundred thousand dollars, and that the payments were to be made in cotton. The commander was arrested, but effected his escape. He declared he would command a privateer and give the Yankees hell. The rebels intended to run the Register in capturing the gunboat Cincinnati.

WAR AND OTHER NEWS FROM THE WEST.

Cincinnati, November 16.—The Gazette's Indianapolis dispatch says that about fifty rebel prisoners at Camp Morton succeeded in scaling the fence Monday night, and forty escaped.

Over 2000 men left Indianapolis for the front yesterday. 5,000 are still encamped there.

The Gazette's Nashville dispatch says the rebel army numbers 30,000, are still concentrated in the vicinity of Florence, Ala., on this side of the river.

The condition of the roads prevent all military operations, and the rebel army remains comparatively quiet.

Springfield, Ill., November 16.—Official returns have been received from sixty-five counties and reported majorities from all the others but two. Lincoln's majority in the State will be over 21,000.

Richmond via New York.

New York, November 14.—Richmond papers of the 12th are received. The Richmond editors are very anxious satisfied that Mr. Lincoln is re-elected beyond dispute, he is so frank and candid with a Constitution to reform, he will have made an honorable mistake for annihilation, and thank the heavenly of having the chance right for them is strongly urged.

A rebel telegraph dispatch from Nashville, says, Colonel Winford and rebel Exchange Commissioner, had an entirely satisfactory interview with Government river Friday last, in reference to the exchange of 10,000 prisoners on each side, and that the transfer of them to their respective authorities would commence on next day.

New York, November 15.—Richmond papers of Saturday last devote much space to the discussion of Northern politics. The result of the Northern election is considered a declaration that the Northern people will have four years more of war. Therefore the Southern people are urged to think of war for an indefinite period.

They desire to prevent talk or trouble about the question of peace, and invoke such means as Vice President Stephens, Governor Brown and Mr. Benjamin to resign. The Whig is confident that before the close of this month Grant will make a combined and formidable land and water attack on Richmond. The Herald's City Point correspondence, dating 14th, says Gen. Eagan was wounded in the arm by sharpshooters last morning.

THE FLORIDA CASE AT WASHINGTON.

New York, November 16.—The World's Washington special says: Hon. Thos. Wilson, American Consul at Dublin, Ireland, has arrived in Washington and had an interview with Secretary Seward. It is rumored Wilson's Commission was furnished by the populace at Dublin, and he barely escaped with life. It is said Seward will send an apology to Brazil for the capture of the Florida. The Tribune says Capt. Collins will be rewarded by our Government.
