The latest and most interesting items of Mexicas intelligence will be found in our Tampico correspondence given below.

The Tampico Irus of December 3 says that a special messenger from the interior confirmed the reported death of General Comonfort. He was amazainated one day as he was going from the haciands of Chamucusto, near Querstaro, and did not fall, as was at first reported, in a fight with a French expedition. His assessing were anknown, but the Supresse Government at the city of Mexico had proclaimed them to be outlaws, to be enumerily executed whenever explained.
