WIRTS NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE.—A. H. Stephens to be Released.

New York, September 23.—The physician is attending upon Captain Wirtz, who is now at Washington, to ascertain that he will not live.

It is reported that Hon. A. H. Stephens will shortly be released. It is expected that, in this case, he will be sent to Georgia and give his powerful aid to the restoration of the Union.

The Consul George Washington, Houston, and Godington have arrived from New Orleans.
