CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Arrival of En-Salvador Gov.—This morning the En-Salvador Gov. arrived in New Orleans, having been sent by the military authorities to Port-au-Prince, and having been captured by the forces of the late President. The En-Salvador Gov. is a man of high standing, and his capture is a great loss to the Republic. He will be held in custody until further orders.

Mayor Menard's Appeal.—The Mayor has appealed to the Governor for a writ of Habeas Corpus for the release of the late President. The Governor has refused the appeal, and the Mayor has filed a writ of Habeas Corpus in the District Court. The Court has granted the writ, and the late President has been released.

Arrival of the New Orleans.—The New Orleans, a fine steamship, arrived from New York on Wednesday morning. She brought a large cargo of goods, and many passengers. The ship was in excellent condition, and the crew was well behaved.

AMUSEMENTS.

Variety Theatres.
The Theatre Francaise, the Grand Opera House, and the Theatre des Folies are all well attended. The new plays are generally well received, and the acting is of a high order. The Grand Opera House is particularly successful, and its performances are highly appreciated.

Comic Opera.—The comic opera is still popular, and many new pieces have been produced. The most successful of these is 'The Barber of Seville,' which has been running for many weeks.

Ballet.—The ballet is also in vogue, and many new dances have been introduced. The Ballet of the Grand Opera House is particularly noted for its beauty and grace.

AUCTION SALES.

Real Estate.—There were several sales of real estate at the Chamberlain and Company's auction room. The most notable was the sale of a large lot of land in the city, which was sold for a high price.

Merchandise.—There were also several sales of merchandise, including clothing, furniture, and household goods. The sales were generally successful, and the goods were sold at good prices.

JUDICIAL SALES.

Real Estate.—There were several judicial sales of real estate, including a large lot of land in the city, which was sold for a high price.

Merchandise.—There were also several judicial sales of merchandise, including clothing, furniture, and household goods. The sales were generally successful, and the goods were sold at good prices.
