To the General Assembly in Extra Session.

City Hall, New Orleans, Nov. 29, 1890.

Executive Chamber

City of New Orleans

Anticipating the regular session of law for the meeting of the General Assembly of the State, I have the honor to submit to you a report on the condition of the State and on the progress of the various departments of the Government.

During the past year, the State has been blessed with a most abundant harvest of cotton, sugar, rice, and other products, and the general prosperity of the people has been maintained.

The public debt of the State has been reduced, and the treasury is in a healthy condition.

The various departments of the Government have discharged their duties with fidelity and efficiency.

The State has made great progress in the development of its resources, and the people are enjoying a peaceful and prosperous life.

I have the honor to recommend to you the various bills and resolutions which I have prepared, and which I believe will be for the benefit of the State.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant.
