

Office, 73 Chartres street

Table of exchange rates for various locations including London, New York, and other international points.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—The House has passed a resolution authorizing the President to issue a proclamation...

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Parliament to Meet on January—The House of Commons is expected to meet on the first of January...

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Thinking Day—Yesterday was a quiet day in the city, with only a few minor incidents reported.

MARKET NEWS.

Stocks and Bonds—The market was generally steady today, with some fluctuations in the bond market.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater and Music—Several new productions are scheduled for the coming week at the local theaters.

AUCTION SALES.

Various Goods—Auction sales of furniture, clothing, and other household items are taking place.

JUDICIAL SALES.

Real Estate—Several parcels of real estate are being sold by order of the court.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Public Notices—Various legal notices regarding estates, probate, and other matters.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Published Daily, except on Sundays, Mondays,
and Public Holidays.
Price: Five Cents.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—Continued from the previous page, discussing the legislative process and public opinion.

LATER FROM EUROPE—Continued with news from various European capitals and the status of the British Parliament.

CITY INTELLIGENCE—More local news, including reports on city council meetings and local business activities.

MARKET NEWS—Detailed financial reports, including stock prices, bond yields, and commodity market movements.

AMUSEMENTS—Reviews and listings for theatrical performances, musicals, and other entertainment events.

AUCTION SALES—Detailed listings of items being sold at auction, including furniture, art, and real estate.

JUDICIAL SALES—Detailed information regarding court-ordered sales of property, including terms and conditions.

LEGAL NOTICES—Additional legal notices, including advertisements for lawyers and public records.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Published Daily, except on Sundays, Mondays,
and Public Holidays.
Price: Five Cents.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—Continued with further analysis of the political and social implications of the proposed proclamation.

LATER FROM EUROPE—Continued with news of international events, including diplomatic relations and military movements.

CITY INTELLIGENCE—Continued with reports on local news, including city council actions and community events.

MARKET NEWS—Continued with market analysis, including discussions on the economic outlook and inflation concerns.

AMUSEMENTS—Continued with listings and reviews for the week's entertainment, including theater and music.

AUCTION SALES—Continued with more auction listings, including real estate and valuable items.

JUDICIAL SALES—Continued with court proceedings and judgments related to property sales.

LEGAL NOTICES—Continued with various legal notices and public information.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Published Daily, except on Sundays, Mondays,
and Public Holidays.
Price: Five Cents.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—Continued with a closer look at the legislative process and the role of the press.

LATER FROM EUROPE—Continued with international news, including reports from London and Paris.

CITY INTELLIGENCE—Continued with local news, including reports on the city's response to the political situation.

MARKET NEWS—Continued with market updates, including commodity prices and financial indicators.

AMUSEMENTS—Continued with entertainment news, including theater reviews and music reports.

AUCTION SALES—Continued with auction listings, including real estate and household goods.

JUDICIAL SALES—Continued with court-related news and legal proceedings.

LEGAL NOTICES—Continued with various legal notices and public information.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Published Daily, except on Sundays, Mondays,
and Public Holidays.
Price: Five Cents.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—Continued with a final analysis of the political situation and the role of the press.

LATER FROM EUROPE—Continued with international news, including reports on the war and peace efforts.

CITY INTELLIGENCE—Continued with local news, including reports on the city's political and social climate.

MARKET NEWS—Continued with market analysis, including discussions on the economic impact of the political events.

AMUSEMENTS—Continued with entertainment news, including theater and music.

AUCTION SALES—Continued with auction listings, including real estate and household goods.

JUDICIAL SALES—Continued with court-related news and legal proceedings.

LEGAL NOTICES—Continued with various legal notices and public information.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Published Daily, except on Sundays, Mondays,
and Public Holidays.
Price: Five Cents.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress—Continued with a final analysis of the political situation and the role of the press.

LATER FROM EUROPE—Continued with international news, including reports on the war and peace efforts.

CITY INTELLIGENCE—Continued with local news, including reports on the city's political and social climate.

MARKET NEWS—Continued with market analysis, including discussions on the economic impact of the political events.

AMUSEMENTS—Continued with entertainment news, including theater and music.

AUCTION SALES—Continued with auction listings, including real estate and household goods.

JUDICIAL SALES—Continued with court-related news and legal proceedings.

LEGAL NOTICES—Continued with various legal notices and public information.

STAMPS & Co.
REAR END OF STAMPS
NEW YORK MAIL STAMPS COMPANY
Selling various stamps, including US and foreign postage stamps, and related stationery.

MISSISSIPPI
Advertisement for the state of Mississippi, possibly related to land sales or government business.

LEGAL NOTICES
A collection of various legal notices, including advertisements for lawyers and public records.

AMUSEMENTS
Listings for theaters, music venues, and other entertainment events in the city.

MARKET NEWS
Financial reports and market analysis, including stock prices and commodity markets.

CITY INTELLIGENCE
Local news reports, including city council actions, community events, and social issues.

LATER FROM EUROPE
International news, including reports from London, Paris, and other major cities.

Mr. Bryan's Proclamation in Congress
A series of articles and analyses discussing the political and social implications of the proposed proclamation.

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE
Small advertisements and notices at the bottom of the page.