THE DEATH OF YOUNG IRELAND.

The brief telegram published in our paper yesterday, announcing that young Irel-land had died at the Charlestown Hotel, New Orleans, on the night of the 12th inst., has excited a great interest in the few accessible copies of the "Liberator."

We venture to say that few who read the brief notice know the hopes which hung around the young man, or the place of his death. He was the son of a prominent and successful merchant, and his death was a great loss to his family and to the community.

THE "LOUISIANA ALMANAC" AND "BRONZE PEN" AUCION SALES.

The "Louisiana Almanac" and "Bronze Pen" are two of the most valuable publications in the South. The Almanac is published by Messrs. J. S. Williams, Mr. J. B. Williams, and Mr. J. C. Williams, and is a most useful and interesting work. The "Bronze Pen" is a small, portable, and durable writing instrument, and is highly valued by the public.

THE DEATH OF YOUNG IRELAND.

The death of young Ireland, a young man of great promise, has caused a great sorrow in the community. He was a student at the University of Louisiana, and his death was a great loss to the institution and to the South.
