PROPOSITIVE CANON.
The subject of the proposed canon is the prohibition of the clergy from officiating at the funeral of a person who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. The canon is proposed by the Synod of the Diocese of Louisiana and the Gulf States, and is intended to be adopted by the Synod at its next session. The canon is as follows: "The clergy shall not officiate at the funeral of a person who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, unless the Synod of the Diocese of Louisiana and the Gulf States shall have otherwise provided by its action." The canon is intended to be a disciplinary measure, and is not intended to be a punishment. It is intended to be a measure of self-preservation, and is intended to be a measure of self-protection. It is intended to be a measure of self-defense, and is intended to be a measure of self-assertion. It is intended to be a measure of self-assertion, and is intended to be a measure of self-assertion.
