WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1867.

Register! Register!

Do not forget that the time for Registry expires at the end of the present month, and that all who do not avail themselves of the opportunity will be unable to vote at the next election. It is every man's duty to Register if he can do so, and unless our citizens come forward and show their strength at the polls they may not hope to be exempt from the evils of misgovernment of the party. Let every man who is entitled to vote, register, and if all would Register, and if they would vote, the blame must rest on themselves. We hope all right minded citizens will Register, and vote as they could wish to live in peace and quietness.

TEXAS A STATE.—In the Union.—In the Supreme Court of the United States, on the motion to admit Texas into the Union as a State, Judge Chase delivered the opinion of the Court, which was read by Judge Grier. The opinion is quite lengthy, and occupies about two columns of the Herald. It is a long argument, tracing the history of Texas from the time of the Declaration of Independence to the present time, and concludes by saying that Texas is a State of the Union, and that the Constitution and laws of the United States are paramount to the laws of Texas. Judge Chase dissented from the opinion of the Court, and delivered a long argument, which occupies about a column of the Herald.

ZEBULON K. HAYES.—The Rev. gentleman charged with swindling a number of persons out of their money, by means of a bogus Bank, has been arrested, and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance before the Recorder this morning.
