

OFFICE 78 CHARTRES STREET.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1868.

Vol. XII.—Whole—14,483

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1868.

The House of Representatives met at ten o'clock yesterday morning in the Senate Chamber, under the presidency of Mr. J. P. Jones.

Mr. Jones presided, and Mr. J. P. Jones read the report of the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Orleans for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee reported that they had held several public hearings and had received many suggestions from the citizens of the parish of Orleans. They had also held a conference with the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Iberville for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee concluded that the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge would be a great benefit to the people of the State, and they recommended that the petition be granted.

The House passed the report of the committee by a vote of 45 yeas and 15 nays.

The Senate met at ten o'clock yesterday morning in the Senate Chamber, under the presidency of Mr. J. P. Jones.

Mr. Jones presided, and Mr. J. P. Jones read the report of the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Orleans for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee reported that they had held several public hearings and had received many suggestions from the citizens of the parish of Orleans. They had also held a conference with the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Iberville for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee concluded that the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge would be a great benefit to the people of the State, and they recommended that the petition be granted.

The Senate passed the report of the committee by a vote of 15 yeas and 15 nays.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Congressional Proceedings.

The Bill Dividing Texas Objected to.

The President Requested to Remove Gen. Reynolds.

The North Carolina Legislature Organized.

The Democratic Convention.

The Southern Delegates to Cast their First Vote for Johnson.

FROM EUROPE.

Miscellaneous Matters.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

THE BEE.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The House of Representatives met at ten o'clock yesterday morning in the Senate Chamber, under the presidency of Mr. J. P. Jones.

Mr. Jones presided, and Mr. J. P. Jones read the report of the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Orleans for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee reported that they had held several public hearings and had received many suggestions from the citizens of the parish of Orleans. They had also held a conference with the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Iberville for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee concluded that the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge would be a great benefit to the people of the State, and they recommended that the petition be granted.

The House passed the report of the committee by a vote of 45 yeas and 15 nays.

The Senate met at ten o'clock yesterday morning in the Senate Chamber, under the presidency of Mr. J. P. Jones.

Mr. Jones presided, and Mr. J. P. Jones read the report of the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Orleans for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee reported that they had held several public hearings and had received many suggestions from the citizens of the parish of Orleans. They had also held a conference with the committee on the petition of the citizens of the parish of Iberville for the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge.

The committee concluded that the removal of the seat of justice from New Orleans to the city of Baton Rouge would be a great benefit to the people of the State, and they recommended that the petition be granted.

The Senate passed the report of the committee by a vote of 15 yeas and 15 nays.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

The market for sugar was also quiet, with prices steady.

The market for rice was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for flour was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for oil was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for iron was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for steel was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for copper was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for tin was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for lead was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for zinc was quiet, with prices steady.

MARINE NEWS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The weather was fair and pleasant today.

The wind was light and variable.

The sea was calm.

The temperature was in the 80s.

The humidity was moderate.

The visibility was good.

The moon was in the sky.

The stars were visible.

The sun was in the sky.

The clouds were light.

The rain was not falling.

AUCTION SALES.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

The market for sugar was also quiet, with prices steady.

The market for rice was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for flour was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for oil was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for iron was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for steel was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for copper was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for tin was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for lead was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for zinc was quiet, with prices steady.

Mercantile Mutual Insurance COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

The market for sugar was also quiet, with prices steady.

The market for rice was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for flour was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for oil was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for iron was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for steel was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for copper was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for tin was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for lead was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for zinc was quiet, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

The market for sugar was also quiet, with prices steady.

The market for rice was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for flour was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for oil was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for iron was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for steel was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for copper was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for tin was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for lead was quiet, with prices steady.

The market for zinc was quiet, with prices steady.

SHIPPING, &c.

Only Direct Line to France.

The General Steam Navigation Company, Limited, has the honor to announce that they have secured the service of the following ships for the purpose of conveying passengers and cargo to France, Italy, and other ports in the Mediterranean Sea.

Ship	Destination	Departure
Adriatic	Genoa, Brindisi, Corfu, Palermo, Messina, Naples, Rome, Genoa	July 10, 1868
Adriatic	Genoa, Brindisi, Corfu, Palermo, Messina, Naples, Rome, Genoa	July 20, 1868
Adriatic	Genoa, Brindisi, Corfu, Palermo, Messina, Naples, Rome, Genoa	July 30, 1868

NEW YORK DIRECT.

For New York Direct.

The General Steam Navigation Company, Limited, has the honor to announce that they have secured the service of the following ships for the purpose of conveying passengers and cargo to New York.

Ship	Destination	Departure
Adriatic	New York	July 10, 1868
Adriatic	New York	July 20, 1868
Adriatic	New York	July 30, 1868

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.

NEW ORLEANS JOURNAL AND GREAT NORTH BAY RAILROAD.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The market for cotton was quiet today, with prices steady.