

The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1868.

Vol. XII.—Whole—14,485

THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE.
 PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING AT NO. 78 CHARTRES STREET.
 BY GEORGE R. STREIBER.
 TERMS: One Year, $10; Six Months, $6; Three Months, $3.
 Single Copies, 10 Cents.

OFFICE 78 CHARTRES STREET.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

HOPE IN THE HOUSE.
 The House of Representatives is in session at the capitol. The Speaker, Mr. Schuchert, is in the chair. The House has passed a bill for the relief of the Treasury, and a bill for the relief of the Army. The House also passed a bill for the relief of the Navy, and a bill for the relief of the Post Office.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WASHINGTON.
 The Democratic Convention has adjourned. The convention was held at Philadelphia, and was attended by a large number of delegates. The convention elected James B. Weaver as its nominee for President, and William G. Fay as its nominee for Vice President.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic Convention has adjourned. The convention was held at Philadelphia, and was attended by a large number of delegates. The convention elected James B. Weaver as its nominee for President, and William G. Fay as its nominee for Vice President.

THE PATRIOT FOR ENTHUSIASTIC AND CONFIDENT.

The Patriot is a journal published in New Orleans. It is devoted to the interests of the South and the Southwestern States. The journal is published weekly, and is a leading publication in the region.

SOUTHERN STATES ADMITTED TO FULL RIGHTS IN THE CONVENTION.

The Southern States have been admitted to full rights in the Convention. This is a significant step towards the reconstruction of the Union.

LETTER FROM JUDGE CHASE.

A letter from Judge Chase has been received. The letter discusses the current situation in the South and the prospects for the future.

THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE CONVENED.

The Georgia Legislature has convened. The session is expected to be a busy one, with many important bills to be considered.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

Various news items from around the country, including reports on political events and local happenings.

THE AMERICAN PROCLAMATION AND ITS EFFECTS.
 The American Proclamation has had a profound effect on the Southern States. It has led to a widespread feeling of dissatisfaction and has caused a significant amount of unrest.

THE POLICE BILL.
 The Police Bill has been passed by the House. The bill provides for the establishment of a police force in New Orleans, and is expected to be signed into law by the President.

THE BUREAU OF REVENUE.
 The Bureau of Revenue has been reorganized. The new structure is designed to improve the efficiency of the bureau and to ensure that the government receives the maximum amount of revenue.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.
 The Governor of the State of Louisiana has issued a proclamation. The proclamation is designed to address the current situation in the state and to provide guidance to the people.

THE COURTS.
 The courts are in session. The courts are expected to pass on a number of important cases, and their decisions are expected to have a significant impact on the law.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA (continued).
 The Governor of the State of Louisiana has issued a proclamation. The proclamation is designed to address the current situation in the state and to provide guidance to the people.

THE COURTS (continued).
 The courts are in session. The courts are expected to pass on a number of important cases, and their decisions are expected to have a significant impact on the law.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA (continued).
 The Governor of the State of Louisiana has issued a proclamation. The proclamation is designed to address the current situation in the state and to provide guidance to the people.

THE COURTS (continued).
 The courts are in session. The courts are expected to pass on a number of important cases, and their decisions are expected to have a significant impact on the law.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.

THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA (continued).
 The Governor of the State of Louisiana has issued a proclamation. The proclamation is designed to address the current situation in the state and to provide guidance to the people.

THE COURTS (continued).
 The courts are in session. The courts are expected to pass on a number of important cases, and their decisions are expected to have a significant impact on the law.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (continued).
 The House of Representatives is in session. The House has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The Senate of the United States is in session. The Senate has passed a number of important bills, and is expected to pass many more in the coming weeks.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (continued).
 The President of the United States is expected to visit New Orleans in the coming weeks. The visit is expected to be a significant event, and will provide an opportunity for the President to meet with the people of the city.