CROSS INJECTION CUTS THE CONDUCTOR.

The present cross-injection cut has been introduced by Dr. John L. Lomax and Dr. Wm. D. Dugan, Doctors in the medical office of the War and Dolores suite, who attracted the attention of the bar to the question of the power of certain courts in the city to issue injunctions and other proceedings of a court of concurrent jurisdiction.

We have already explained our views as to the character of the claim of the doctors to the right to issue injunctions, and we have also given the opinion of another judge of equal jurisdiction.

It is asserted there is a law defining the jurisdiction of the courts of justice in the state.

A. F. STONE, Vice-President, will hold for advancement.

A. R. STONE, General Secretary, to be held for advancement.

All titles with regular signatures shall be rendered in full.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Supreme Court Decisions.—This court made a number of decisions yesterday, of which we give the following of interest:

In the case of People v. G. M. Wickline, Plaintiff asked for a writ of habeas corpus to be issued by the New York Court of Appeals.

The Court denied the motion, and held that the
