THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS,
TUESDAY MORNING, DEC 29, 1886.

THE CANAL PROJECT AND THE DRAINAGE SYSTEM.

The attention of our readers was invited, in a previous issue, to the fact that the Legislature had passed a bill providing for the construction of a canal from the mouth of the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico, and for the improvement of the drainage system of the State. The bill was signed by the Governor, and is now a law.

THE CASE OF JEFF DAVIS.

The case of Jeff Davis, who was arrested in London and brought to New Orleans, is still the subject of much interest. The authorities here are waiting for the result of the proceedings in London, where it is believed that a judgment will be rendered in a few days.

GRANT DETERMINED TO ROOT OUT THE WHISKY, RAILROAD AND OTHER RINGS.

General Grant has issued orders to the effect that he is determined to root out the whisky, railroad and other rings in the South. He has directed the military authorities to take the necessary steps to enforce these orders.

RECEIVED BY TELEGRAPH.

London, Dec. 28.—The original question of the 18th inst. has been decided in favor of the Crown. The House of Lords has affirmed the judgment of the Court of Appeal.

THE FRENCH OPERA.

The French Opera, which has been performing here for some time, has received much praise for its excellent performances. The management is doing everything to please the public, and the audience is well satisfied.

THE NEW ORLEANS PORT OFFICE.

The new port office, which was recently opened, has been found to be very convenient. It has improved the system of receiving and forwarding goods, and has greatly facilitated the work of the merchants.

COMMERCIAL.

The market for commodities is generally quiet. There is a slight improvement in the price of sugar, but otherwise the market remains steady. The exchange rate is also steady.

AMUSEMENTS.

The St. Charles Theatre has given a very successful performance of the new play. The audience was well pleased with the acting and the scenery. The other theatres are also doing well.

JUDICIAL SALES.

Several judicial sales will be held in New Orleans during the week. The proceeds from these sales will be used to pay the debts of the estate of the late General Grant.
