And these embrace the whole extent of all the obligations and duties which are imposed on this pompany in ratura and compensation for the snormous donations which are proposed in the bill, which was fortunately hat with no little difficulty defeated in the leat session of the Legislaters. A plan which contemplated such wild and/rections diversion of the powers and resources of the State and of the contributions of our heavily taxed properly holders, ought to be slosely watched and vigorously opposed. Whether a ship canal above the city is practicable or desirable, whether the resources can cable or destrable, wasther the resources on be sommanded to construct such a work, ma-and should be carefully discussed and deterand should be carefully discussed and deter-mined upon their own merits. But any plan which depends for its success upon the adoption of so improvident and reckiese a project as that which was proposed and barely seasons adop-tion in the Legislature under the guise and pre-

DEATH OF MR. EDMOND SONIAT. DEATH OF MR. EDMOND SOMIAT.

We have a painful daty to perform to day in assisting at the funeral obsequies of our old and honorable friend—Mf. Edmeed Soniat, who died yesterday morning (30th Inst.)—almost enddenly, at the age of sixty law years. He had been threatened with blindness for some time, which brought with it a depression of splitt, from which be vainly endeavored to receiver. This double infirmity moderbiedly hastened his decease. Mr. Soniat's death will be deeply regretted, as he was one of those whom it is a pleasure to know and been formerly a member of the Legislature, and the word "formerly" has here a particular meaning. Twenty five or thirty years ago it CITY INTELLIGENOR. an it be word "formerly" has here a particular as the word "formerly" has here a spot in seaning. We might cite Mr. Soniat ac one of those citizens who honor a republic by their disinterestedness and who never subvaries it by sordid ambition or tooliny vanity.

After all, the eminent moral qualities which distinguished Mr. Soniat were worthy of his uoble race. That race decoended from the market of the past of the past of the past of the past of the president Markey is the chair.
