The Stoles Chill of Mr. Digby, As well as we can ascertain the facts the offeum-stances of the disappearance of the little child of Mr. Digby of this city, about which the community has been so generally agal justly excited with sympathy for the parents are these:

About 7 o'clock the evening of the 9th of June the child was playing on the banquette in front of its father's house, in the presence of a young lady Miss Rose Germon and her little brother. The alarm of fire was given, and Miss Germon left to enquire about its locality, handing the child but 17 menths old to her little brother. Presently two women, one a WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS.
