FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

London, Jan. 6.—The bombardment of the British base of Scarborough, in the North Sea, on Friday, was the heaviest in the history of the war. The town was shelled for three hours, and the harbor was filled with wreckage. The British fleet, including the battlecruiser Hood, was in the area, but no action was taken.

London, Jan. 6.—The following named persons were arrested in Scarborough on Friday: John Smith, 34, a merchant; James Brown, 28, a clerk; and William White, 45, a farmer. They were charged with espionage.

London, Jan. 6.—The British government has announced that it has received information from a confidential source that the German navy is preparing to launch a major offensive against the British coast. The offensive is expected to take place in the next few weeks.
