CHARTER
—OF THE—
LOUISIANA TROY LAUNDRY COMPANY, Limited.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, } State of Louisiana, } City of New Orleans }

BE IT KNOWN, that on this Eight day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety two, before me, JAMES FAHEY, a notary public in and for this city and the parish of Orleans State of Louisiana aforesaid, duly commissioned, qualified and sworn, in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared, the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed who severally declared, that availing themselves of the laws of this State in such case made and provided, and of Act No 36 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, approved Jan 29th, 1888, they do, by these presents, covenant, agree and bind themselves, as well as such other persons who may hereafter become associated with them, to form themselves into and constitute a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes and under the agreements, conditions and stipulations following to-wit:

ARTICLE FIRST.

The name and style of this corporation shall be the "LOUISIANA TROY LAUNDRY COMPANY, LIMITED," under which name it shall enjoy corporate existence and succession for ninety-nine years from the date hereof; to contract, and be sued; to purchase, sell, lease, hypothecate, mortgage and pledge property, real and personal, to borrow money, issue obligations and negotiate the same; to elect officers and make by-laws and generally in the prosecution of its business, to do any act or make any contract not prohibited by the laws of this State.

ARTICLE SECOND.

The domicile of this corporation shall be in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana; all citations and other legal process shall be served on the President, and in case of his absence from the city or inability to act, on the Vice-President.

ARTICLE THIRD.

This corporation is established for the purpose of carrying on and conducting a general laundry business and to do and perform in connection therewith all and whatsoever that shall or may be requisite in the premises.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at Fifteen thousand Dollars, divided into One hundred and fifty shares of One hundred Dollars each, of which there has been fully paid, and the same shall only be transferrable on the books of said Company upon the surrender of the outstanding certificates.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

The officers of this corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer, all of which shall be elected annually on the second Monday of January of each year. The first annual election under this charter shall be held on the second Monday of January 1894, up to which date the officers and Board of Directors herein named shall fulfill the duties of said offices. Vacancies in the said offices shall own not less than five shares of the capital stock each and shall constitute and be the Board of Directors of said Company. The corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by the Board of Directors composed of not less than three nor more than five members of said Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All elections of officers and Board of Directors who, by virtue of their election as such officers, are the directors of this corporation shall hold office for one year, or until the successors of the company under the supervision of three commissioners to be appointed by the officers of the company, of which ten days prior notice shall be given of such election by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, and the directors thus elected shall serve and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and inducted into office.

All meetings of stockholders each stockholder shall be entitled to cast in person or by proxy, one vote for each share of stock held by him and standing in his name on the books of said Company. At all elections a majority of the votes cast shall decide all questions before meetings. If at any time there should be a failure to elect officers at the proper time, such failure shall not dissolve said corporation, but the then existing officers shall continue in office, and an election may be held at such time as shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors or by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, and thereafter, at the regular meeting of said members of said Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All elections of officers and Board of Directors who, by virtue of their election as such officers, are the directors of this corporation shall hold office for one year, or until the successors of the company under the supervision of three commissioners to be appointed by the officers of the company, of which ten days prior notice shall be given of such election by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, and the directors thus elected shall serve and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and inducted into office.

All meetings of stockholders each stockholder shall be entitled to cast in person or by proxy, one vote for each share of stock held by him and standing in his name on the books of said Company. At all elections a majority of the votes cast shall decide all questions before meetings. If at any time there should be a failure to elect officers at the proper time, such failure shall not dissolve said corporation, but the then existing officers shall continue in office, and an election may be held at such time as shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors or by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, and thereafter, at the regular meeting of said Board of Directors shall be filled by the remaining Directors.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

The first Board of Directors and Officers of this corporation shall be : Joseph Hernandez, President, Walter Hernandez, Vice-President, and Charles Hernandez, Secretary-Treasurer. All contracts, obligations and checks of this corporation must be signed by the President and the Secretary-Treasurer.

ARTICLE SEVENTH.

This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or altered or said corporation may be dissolved at a special meeting of the stockholders convened for that purpose, after thirty days prior notice by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, with the assent of the stockholders representing three-fourths of the stock represented at such meeting. Any change or alteration as to the capital stock of said company shall require the assent of the majority in amount of the entire stock of the corporation then subscribed and paid for and in addition to the publication of thirty days notice in writing of any meeting called for that purpose and another notice shall be mailed to each stockholder as prescribed by law.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of the corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance if any, due by him on shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any more informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any further liability than the unpaid balance due on his said stock.

ARTICLE NINTH.

Whenever this corporation shall be dissolved either by limitation or from any other cause, its affairs shall be liquidated under the supervision of three commissioners to be appointed from among the stockholders convened for that purpose after thirty days prior notice by publication in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans, and with the assent of a majority of the capital stock. said commissioners to remain in office until the affairs of the corporation shall have been fully liquidated, and in case of the death of any member of said commissioners, the survivor or survivors to select from among the stockholders a substitute or substitutes for such deceased commissioners.

Thus done and passed, in my office, the day, month and year hereinbefore stated, in the presence of competent witnesses, who sign these presents with said transporators and me, notary, after read ing hereof.
