BOXING FAVORITE SPORT OF ARMY

Jondon, June 4. Thousands of boxing bouts, by absoclutely simon pure amateur fighters in the British armies, have made practically the whole force handy with their Higgins. mifts and placed boxing on a high plane of respectability. Old-timers connected with the fight game reluctantly have come to the belief that the prafessional fight show will never again enjoy its old prosperity. Soldiers engage in company tourneys, interregimental meets and in special matches of love of the game. The winners receive appropriate cups or medals.

It is the so'dier himself who wins the medal as the form of reward instead of the cash purse. Not long ago, in a tournament held behind the lines at a French village, a general was asked to distribute the prizes. He decided to give the fightgr- their chaice between money and Wingo. permanent honors. Every winner

Boxing has become the favorite sport of the army. Hundreds of sets. of gloves have been sent out and yet hundreds more are demanded. Gloves are in almost daily use from the time they are received until they become too taffered for the safety of the boxers.

Shell craters, barrack rooms, turnip fields, village halls and training fields become the scenes of organized turneys or impromptu bouts between rival athletes. Sometimes there are regulation rings. More often soldiers stand at the corners holding the ropes. Tommies take the company hoxing gloves into the trenches so as to have them handy immediately Meyers. on being relieved.

Ferdinand Subblefield Schupp, the southpawing chucker of the Giants. | Ainsmith. has won himself a home under the shelter of Coogan's Buff.

Last fall, after he was handed a wrilling by Field Marshal McGraw. For looking at basebal as a feicolons sort of business, he started to pitch ball. He settled down to real work and since that time be has heen building up a name for him-Self.

He won his first five games with The Giants this year, and from the form he has shown he should be -kood for between twenty and thirty wiclories before the season ends. Schupp is young and strong. He has wonderful control for a southpaw and an assortment of benders that keeps the batsmen in hot water all

Best of all, Schupp has settled down to study the batters and to absorb all that McGraw can teach him about the fine points of the

FOR OMAR KHAYYAM $26,600.

New York, June 4 .- In one of the most sensational public sales of race horses for years, C. K. Billings disbosed of this year's Kentucky Derby. Scinner, Omar Khayyam, at a price of $26,600 to Wilfred Viau of Montreat. The horse was entered in the Withers stakes, a feature of the Belmont park spring meeting, but was scratched at the last minute. Among other stars disposed of was Enfilade, which brought $5,300, and Man of the Hour, $5:000.

FOUGHT AT KOHL'S PARTY

Struggle Preced Death of Vaudeville

Manager. Chicago, June 4.—An insane man's hallucinations that his best friend was paying undue attentions to his wife and a desperate battle between the friends for possession of a revolver as the climax to a party celebrating the friend's return from Catifornia, were revealed today as the mysterious elements in the death of Charles E. Kohl, millionaire theatgical man, at a sanitarium in Oco-homowoc. Death was due to a heart ailment. superinduced by the excitement, inedidental to the fight, physicians, state, and this explanation has been accepted by the authorities.

POINTS TO BE REMEMBERED IN WAR ARMY REGISTRATION

4. There is only one day for registration, June 5, 1917.

2. Every male resident of the United States who has reached his 21st and who has not reached his 31st birthday must register on the day set, June 5, 1917. The only exceptions are persons in the military or naval service of the United States which includes all officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the regular army reserve, the offivers' reserve corps, the enlisted reserve corps, the National Guard and National Guard reserve recognized by the Militia Bureau of the War Department, the navy, the marine corps, the coast guard and the Naval Militia; the naval reserve force, the marine corps reserve and the national volunteers, recognized by the Navy Department,

3. Registration is distinct from draft. No matter what just claim you have for exemption, you must register.

1. Registration is a public duty. For those not responsible to the sense of this duty the penalty of imprisonment, not fine, is provided in the draft act.

5. Those who through sickness shall be unable to register should cause a representative to apply to the county or city clerk for a copy of the registration card. The clerk will give instructions as to how this card should be filled out. The card should then be mailed by the sick person or delivered by his agent to the registrar of his home district. The sick person will enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return to him of his registration certificate.

6. Any person who expects to be absent from his voting precinct on registration day should apply as soon as possible for a registration card to the country clerk of the county where he may be stopping, or if he is in a city of over thirty thousand, to the city clerk. The clerk will record the answers on the card and turn it over to the absentee. The absentee should mail this eard to the registrar of his home district so that it reach this official by registration day. A self-addressed stamped envelope should be enclosed with the card-to insure the return to the absentee of a registration certificate.

7. Registration booths will be open from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. on registration day, June 5, 1917.
