Blessed Immunity: Ethel surprised her mother by her interest in a statue of the Venus of Milo. "Oh, I wish I was that lady!" she exclaimed.

Camels in Palestine: Camels are abundant in Palestine. It is told in Judges vii, 12, that the Midianites and the Amalekites possessed camels "as the sand by the sea for multitude."

Genius and Eccentricity: "You can't have genius without eccentricity." "That may be so, but I've noticed that it's possible to have a good deal of eccentricity without much genius."

Lawrence Priddy of New York was elected president of the National Life Underwriters' Association at the closing session of the three-day convention which ended at the Grunewald Hotel Friday afternoon.

The Dock Board Thursday completed the purchase of a strip extending from the river to Dauphine street, adjoining the Ursuline property and lying between that property and Kentucky street.

Declaring attorneys should settle their cases with law books in court, and not with their fists outside the courtroom, Judge Foster, of the United States District Court, Friday imposed a sentence of ten days in the House of Detention on Harry K. Johnson, former president of the Orleans-Kenner Railway Company.

The sentence was the result of an altercation between Mr. Johnson and H. Genereux Dufour Thursday. Reports were received by the Rapides parish authorities of the destruction of six dipping vats in Hingston and Springhill wards, which were blown up by dynamite Monday night.

Rudolph Eshleman, 41 years, 1612 North Broad street, received a serious concussion of the brain when he was thrown from his bicycle at Esplanade avenue and North Touff street Friday afternoon.

Upon the recommendation of the committee on teachers and instruction the School Board Friday decided to open the evening schools October 8. Classes for foreigners will be centralized at McDonough School No. 18, St. Claude and St. Ann streets.

James S. Ohino, 8 years, 3473 Esplanade avenue, was drowned shortly before noon Friday when a heavy gust of wind blew the boy into Bayou St. John.

The Canal Bank and Trust Company, one of the oldest and largest banking institutions in New Orleans, Friday announced that it has become a member of the Federal Reserve System.

Alfred S. Coward, Confederate veteran and until five years ago widely known in the real estate business, died in his home, 310 South Jefferson Davis Parkway, Friday morning at 1 o'clock.

Discussion of schemes for conserving the 70,000,000 acres of cut-over lands in the South and the completion of the organization of the Cut-Over Land Association, occupied the attention of a half hundred of the most prominent lumbermen of the South at the convention of the association in the gold room of the Grunewald Hotel Thursday.

Speaking in the name of the President, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, made the opening appeal here Thursday noon before the National Life Underwriters' Association for the sale of the second Liberty Loan, soon to be put on the market.

accompanied by Governor Pleasant and Mayor Behrman. He was in New Orleans twenty-five minutes. Mr. Lane's speech was hurried by the necessity of leaving on the Panama Limited train for Chicago.

Shreveport is particularly interested and not a little concerned over the reported loss, by death or accident of Captain George Guynemer, the best known, most daring and most successful of all the aviators serving in the world war.

Bitten four times by a vicious dog at Marigny and North Robertson streets, Antoine Kraus, 12 years old, 2217 North Robertson street, was taken to the Charity Hospital Wednesday. There he is taking the Pasteur treatment.

The case against Miss May Billar, charged with robbing purses of worshippers in the Jesuit Church, was made prosequi in the First City Criminal Court Thursday morning.

A decree for plaintiff, the amount to be later determined, was handed down by Judge Foster of the United States District Court Thursday, in the case of Mrs. Louise Stone Borst vs. Mrs. Camilla Putnam Parkerson.
